Your Excellency,

I have the profound honour to express to you, on behalf of the Association of Caribbean States and indeed on my own behalf, sincere congratulations on the success of the People's Progressive Party/Civic (PPP/C) in the recently held elections and consequently, your first mandate as the tenth President of Guyana.

In this regard, allow me to acknowledge this success at the polls as a demonstration of the faith that the people of Guyana have in the ability of your administration to move the country forward. Undoubtedly, it is also evidence of an unwavering belief in your capacity as a leader; that you shall continue to strive for the continuous improvement of your people.

Permit me to express my confidence in the success of your term in office and in the deepening of the current warm and productive relationship between the ACS and Guyana as a valued Member of the organisation, as we continue to forge ahead toward the sustainable development of the Greater Caribbean. The ACS looks forward to your country's continued commitment to the Association.

While extending our every best wish to the Government and People of the Co-operative Republic of Guyana for continued peace and prosperity, permit me to reiterate to you, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration and esteem.

Dear Mr. President,

It is my pleasure to convey my sincere congratulations to you on your appointment as the ninth President of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana, after winning the elections in your country.

Allow me to reiterate the desire of the Inter-American Institute for Cooperation on Agriculture (IICA) to assist your country in the modernization of the agriculture sector based on the priorities of your government. The COVID-19 pandemic has impacted food supply and threatens the livelihood of the most vulnerable. Through the use of technology and innovation, IICA can provide support to increase overall productivity and to reduce rural vulnerability.

IICA has had a long history and a successful partnership of technical cooperation in agricultural and rural development with the Government and people of the Cooperative Republic of Guyana. Therefore, through Mr. Wilmot Garnett, IICA Representative in your country, IICA stands ready to coordinate with your government for the continued advancement of priority agricultural actions of common interest.

I would like to take this opportunity to wish you every success in your term of office, and to convey the assurances of my highest consideration.

Congratulatory Message from The Citizenship Initiative

Dear Excellency,

On behalf of The Citizenship Initiative (TCI), I extend warmest congratulations and best wishes firstly to you, on being sworn in as the Ninth Executive President of our beautiful Guyana, and to the PPP/C party for successfully contesting the 2020 General and Regional Elections.

This national elections cycle has been a challenging and trying one for those that contested given the scenario that played out which almost upended our democracy which the PPP's founder, Dr. Cheddi Jagan, along with others from our past, fought so hard to secure. Nevertheless, TCI is relieved that justice and democracy have prevailed, and we are pleased that the majority will of the populace has triumphed and you have taken your place as the duly elected president.

Although we may be in opposing political camps, I am certain that our love and passion for the development of Guyana and our Guyanese people unites us on a common front, and it is against this background that I offer you and your new government encouragement to stamp your mark on our nation through transformative policies and lean, clean governance that benefits all Guyanese regardless of race, religion or other differences. I also, on behalf of my party, offer TCI's commitment to working with your administration to craft legislation and national programs that will propel our younger, upcoming leaders on to a platform for them to shine brightly as the next beacons of leadership for the future.

Mr. President, TCI looks forward to your administration fulfilling its campaign manifesto, and we are ever ready to be consulted and offer our insight as you go about shaping the future of our country at this critical juncture of our political and economic history. May Allah (SWT) guide you and give you the strength, courage and resources to be a president for all of us.

Kind regards,

Dear His Excellency Mr. Irfaan Ali:

Please accept congratulations on behalf of the People's Republic Party for being elected the ninth (9th) President of this beautiful land of Guyana. We want you to know what you can expect our full cooperation in your efforts to realize a vision of peace and prosperity for all Guyanese.

This was a unique election that demanded tremendous patience from all Guyanese. We acknowledge your efforts and the efforts of your party to exercise restraint during the long waiting period. We believe that this is a new season in which you and your team have been given the opportunity to be a government for ALL the Guyanese people.

We strongly urge you to address the racial divide with the attendant mistrust and fear of marginalisation that is a far cry from the spirit of our pledge: One People, One Nation, One Destiny. Your initiative to bring together stakeholders in a national dialogue of healing and reconciliation is absolutely essential at this time, and we urge you to move towards making this happen.

We are looking forward to an audience with you at your earliest convenience. Working together for the good of all Guyanese will guarantee our country's development. Congratulations!

Sincerely yours,

Your Excellency,

We of the Federation of Independent Trade Unions of Guyana (FITUG), the country's largest trade union federation, take this opportunity to congratulate you on your election as the Ninth Executive President of our Cooperative Republic.

The Federation holds that your wide experience will undoubtedly serve you well as our nation's foremost leader. We are aware of the regression our people suffered in the last five (5) years and know that you and your Government have lots of hard work ahead. Though difficult, we are confident you will succeed and deliver to Guyanese the life they yearn for and truly deserve.

As you begin to pick up the pieces of Guyana and build the unity so necessary for our success, please be assured of our support. We are hopeful, at an appropriate time, to engage you and your Administration to share our ideas and thoughts as our country moves from challenge to prosperity under your watch.

Allow us, once again, to extend our warmest greetings of congratulations to you and your Government.

Yours faithfully,

President

Dear President Ali,

On behalf of my Government and the people of Curaçao, I would like to extend my heartfelt congratulations on the victory of your party, the People's Progressive Party/Civic (PPP/C) on its electoral success, and to you, President Ali on your new position. I wish you success and much wisdom in taking up this role, especially during these challenging times and at this critical point in your country's development.

Furthermore, I would also like to take this opportunity to express my wishes to further develop the bilateral relations between our two countries. At the beginning of this year, there was a trade mission which was headed by our Minister of Economic Development at the time. We hope to continue to develop this area of cooperation, but also other themes such as resilience and regional collaboration.

I therefore hope to have the pleasure of speaking to you very soon.

Please accept the assurances of my highest consideration.

Sincerely,

Excellency,

I warmly congratulate you on your election as the new President of the Co-operative Republic of Guyana, and convey my best wishes for success in your high office.

India and Guyana enjoy close and cordial relations based on the foundations of democracy, shared culture and history. There is tremendous potential to further enhance economic, cultural and people-to-people ties between our countries.

I look forward to working with you to advance our bilateral and multilateral cooperation in all fora including in the UN and CARICOM, for the mutual benefit of our peoples.

I take this opportunity to convey to Your Excellency my best wishes for your personal well-being and for the progress and prosperity of the friendly people of Guyana.

Please accept, Excellency, the assurances of my highest consideration.

Mr President,

Please accept my sincere congratulations on your inauguration as President of the Co-operative Republic of Guyana.

Your election is a reaffirmation of democracy in your country, which is founded on the same values that are important to us. These values and convictions form the basis of our good cooperation, which we are keen to further intensify together with you.

You are taking up your new office at a difficult time. The COVID-19 pandemic and its economic and social impact are posing a global challenge which we can only overcome by working together. I wish you, also on behalf of my fellow Germans, much strength and every success with the major task of safely guiding your country out of the crisis, bringing prosperity and peace to your people as well mastering all the other challenges ahead of you.
